SACRAMENTO, June 18.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Oakland took kindly to Stroud's offerings, hammering them to all corners of the lot. Score—Oakland 8, Sacramento 4. Batteries: Oakland—Kilbuck and Mitze; Sacramento—Stroud and Ellis.

At San Francisco the Beavers had little trouble defeating the Seals, Baker being easy as usual. Score—Portland 6, San Francisco 3. Batteries: San Francisco—Baker and Schmidt; Portland—Higginbotham and Berry.

At Los Angeles the Angels walked away from the Tigers in an uninteresting game. Score—Los Angeles 5, Venice 1. Batteries: Los Angeles—Perritt and Roles; Venice—Kostner and Elliott.

G. W. Green's All-Hawaiian ball team, picked from local players of the Oahu League, arrived on the steamer Sierra at San Francisco on June 6. The team was well received and entertained at San Francisco during their stay of five hours in that city.

T. G. Thrum of Fort street is in receipt of a letter from Manager Fred Hill of the Argonaut Hotel, who said that the boys are a fine, manly set, and that he had given them the best to be had during their brief stay at the hotel.

The orchestra of the hotel played native airs and several of the boys sang songs of home. On the evening of June 7, the team left San Francisco for Omaha, Nebraska, where the first game was to be played on June 10. From there the team will take a circuitous route to Chicago, where Williams has booked the All-Hawaiians with the American Giants, a crack colored team of the Middle West.

Al Williams is also in receipt of a letter from one of the boys, Elen Cushing, at Denver, who speaks well of the treatment afforded the team. Williams regretted that the weather was a bit cold and that the stay in Denver would not show of their visiting the many points of interest.

After the trip through the mainland Green will bring the team back to San Francisco, where it is his plan to play several games with local clubs prior to the departure to Honolulu, which will be some time in October.

Tom Gunn, Chinese aviator is a much disappointed man these days for his dearly beloved airplane was not on the steamer Siberia when the big liner pulled in at the dock yesterday morning.

Tom was an expert waiter at the boat, but it seems that his beloved airplane had become lost strayed or stolen on the mainland and of course if such was the case Tom would be without his means of flying through the air.

When the news was flashed to him of the conditions, he immediately cabled $500 to the mainland to defray expenses for the recovery of his airplane and if it could not be found, for his valet and mechanic to get another one.

This means that if the old airplane is not found, another will be in its place and Tom will give a fight hereabout about July 4.

The first excursion of Filipinos from Manila to the United States, in which only Filipinos will be listed, will pass through Honolulu early in 1915 on the way to the Panama-Pacific Exposition. On arrival here the party will be given a welcome to the city and entertained, a letter to that effect having been sent by the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce to A. I. de Souza, secretary and treasurer of the Hotel de France, Manila.

Mr. Souza has written the chamber of commerce to the effect that this party is now being organized, and it will be composed exclusively of Filipinos of wealth. The party will leave Manila early in April, 1915, visiting here the same month.

The last chance to get one of The Advertiser's handy Pocket Scissors is here. Today a coupon is printed on the sport page which with ten cents, will entitle the bearer to one of The Advertiser Pocket Scissors if presented at the business office on King street near Alaska.

Seventy-five of the Scissors are still left and The Advertiser wants to clean up on the batch. If you have not already secured one of the handy little Pocket Scissors cut out the coupon and bring it with ten cents to The Advertiser office.

Everybody who was fortunate enough to get one of the first batch is simply tickled to death and it is doubtful if many will be left after the fans have seen the coupon.

Another interesting game, indoor soccer football has been added to the variety of games which can be played at the Y. M. C. A., either in the gymnasium or games hall. The game is fast and exciting although not as strenuous as basketball.

So far as exercise is concerned, it is a medium between two games, baseball and basketball. It is a great game for business men and the younger men can get all the fun and exercise they wish out of it.

Indoor soccer football may be played on any rectangular, enclosed floor which is free from obstructions, said floor not to exceed five thousand square feet of actual playing space. The goals are placed in the middle of each goal line, a goal consisting of two upright poles, placed six feet apart, with a horizontal cross-bar, seven feet from the floor. The ball is round, with a circumference of seventeen inches. It is made with a tennis ball in as center, with horse hair padding and wound loosely with wool over which is sewed a horsehide cover. The ball is light enough to be easily kicked and fast enough to make playing interesting.

The game is played by five men on each team and are designated as follows: Goal keeper, back, center left wing, right wing.

The rules of the game are quite similar to the outdoor game of soccer, with the exception of a few changes, which are of minor importance.

It will be excellent training for the men who play the outdoor game and keep them in practice the whole year round. If indoor soccer becomes popular in the "Y" it will be put on the standard list of games as basketball and baseball.

Women athletes will not be recognized by the Amateur Athletic Union, nor will they be allowed to compete in events against men. Such is the edict of James E. Sullivan, secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union of America.

Several weeks ago John P. Soper, chairman of the registration committee of the Hawaiian branch of the A. A. U., issued a card to Ruth Wayson Stacker, and he has now been advised to take up the card and in no case issue any more where women are concerned.

Sullivan, in his letter to Mr. Soper, dwells long on the reasons why women should not be allowed to compete with men and says most emphatically that he will not accept the entry of any woman in any of the athletic events at the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco in 1915.

Sullivan also says that he will bring the matter before the A. A. U. body in the near future and will ask that the committee on registration promulgate a rule to that effect.

Just what effect the order of Sullivan will have on local athletic conditions, as well as those on the mainland, remains to be seen. It has been suggested that an auxiliary to the A. A. U. be formed for the entrance of women athletes and that they be permitted to compete in events where men take part, but not against men.

Until the matter is thoroughly discussed, the position of women in A. A. U. events will remain as Mr. Sullivan dictates, which means that their entries will be refused in meets where men take part.

GOVERNOR RAISES BAN ON SUNDAY BASEBALL

Governor Baldwin of Connecticut recently signed a bill passed by the legislature which permits of Sunday athletics in the amateur ranks as well as baseball among the amateurs and semi-professionals.

The chief executive of the National State is an old ball player and was somewhat of the benefits to be derived from the pastime by the young men of his State.

Shortly before the sailing of the Wilhelmina for the mainland yesterday morning, the winners of the several events at the swimming meet of the A. A. U. on June 11 were presented with the medals which they had won.

Among the recipients of the first class or gold medals was Miss Ruth Wayson Stacker, whose marvelous performance in the fifty-yard swim has been the one topic of conversation in swimming circles.

Her swimming of the fifty yards in 0:31 flat was most remarkable as an achievement from a swimming point of view, and all the more remarkable from the fact that she broke what has heretofore been heralded as a world's record for women over the same distance.

Up to the moment Miss Stacker covered the distance in 0:31, Miss Fanny Durnack of Australia, a swimmer who had accomplished great things in her own country and at Stockholm, held the record for fifty yards with a record of 0:31.25 seconds.

The medal awarded Miss Stacker is the regulation A. A. U. medal of gold. On one side is the inscription, "Hawaii A. A. U. 50-yard swim for ladies, 1913," which signifies that the event took place in a regular sanctioned meet of the A. A. U. and will have to be recognized the world over.

On the reverse side will be engraved "Ruth Wayson Stacker, swimming 50 yards, Time 31 seconds, June 11, 1913."

The medal was pinned on Miss Stacker by Lorrin Andrews. The young woman was accompanied by her father.

While Miss Stacker was unable to compete in the coming meet of the Pacific Coast championship held at San Francisco, it is the hope of her admirers that in the near future she will compete against the world's best women swimmers, so that her ability as a swimmer will be further established.

WORCESTER, Massachusetts, June 18.—(By Associated Press Cable)—The All-Chinese baseball team defeated Holy Cross, one of the fastest college teams in the country, this afternoon in a sensational game. Score 3 to 1.

Kawaiahao Prepares for Two Important Jubilees

An event of peculiar importance in the Christian life of the Territory will be the annual meeting of the Hawaiian Board beginning June 27, at Kawaiahao Church, and continuing until the afternoon of July 3.

The celebration will this year combine two notable half-century anniversaries. Chief of these is the anniversary of the pastorate of Rev. H. H. Parker in Kawaiahao Church, for not only has the veteran pastor occupied the pulpit continuously for fifty years, but is the only surviving charter member of the Hawaiian Board. The occasion likewise marks fifty years of service for the board.

In 1863 Rev. Rufus Anderson, D.D., foreign secretary of the A. B. C. F. M., visited Hawaii to assist in a reconstruction of Christian work. The Hawaiian Board was organized in June, 1863, to take charge of all the mission work in the Territory. The American Board thus became an auxiliary with no other obligations than to make grants in aid of certain departments of the work.

In the face of many problems, which the early missionary fathers could not foresee, chief of which a remarkable industrial expansion, which depleted some communities and weakened many country churches, and the immigration of large numbers of non-Christian foreign laborers, the board has enlarged its activities until, in contrast to the twenty-four churches under the care of eighteen missionary pastors in 1863, are one hundred and four churches with a working force of over a hundred evangelists and teachers.

The accessions to the churches on confession of faith during the half century have been 19,998, or 3048 more than the total membership fifty years ago. With the exception of the first decade, the past ten years have been the most fruitful of the entire period. The church membership on this last decade has increased from 6343 to 8673, or nearly thirty-three per cent. The accessions on confession of faith during the past ten years have been 3225, only forty-one less than the total membership of the churches twenty years ago. The churches under the Hawaiian Board now have a membership larger than for any years since 1873, or forty years ago.

There have also been notable material gains. Property values have greatly increased, due to the erection of new church edifices and the remodeling of old buildings. The churches

MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION BOOSTS SWIMMERS' FUND

When the Hui Nalu and Healanis counted up the cash on hand to defray the expenses of the trip of the swimmers to the mainland they found they were $50 short.

When the merchants' association heard of this, the members sent a check for the amount to W. T. Rawlins who will act as manager of the men while on the mainland.

First the All-Chinese burnstormers sailed away to the Coast for further worlds to conquer. Then Guy Green recruited an All-Hawaiian (7) bunch of stars to take the mainland by surprise. Leslie W. Wishard of Oahu College has now become enthused over the ideas and have organized another bunch of ball players who will show the Kauai people how to play ball. These boys are all Kauai residents who are attending Honolulu schools and playing on the first teams of the various schools. That is, they are all residents of Kauai with the exception of Edl Inman, Bill Hitecock, and Harry Baldwin, who will act as battery.

Most of these boys are merely going home for their vacations and no worry need be indulged in as to the financial management, for but a few dollars are needed for the trip of one of the three boys, and this money will be subscribed by the residents of Kauai.

This is the first time for a great many years that a Honolulu team has gone to Kauai and the Garden Islands will most certainly turn out in crowds to witness the game. Wishard says that the Kauai people are anxious to know how they show up against Honolulu teams and he is quite confident that the trip will be a success.

The game will be played on July fourth against an all-Kauai team or against the McBryde aggregation, which recently walked away with the Garden-Island championship.

The team will consist of the following: Fawcett, who's long body made itself useful in Fawcett's behalf by holding down first base during the interscholastic series; Kani, who held down the same position for Kanehameha; Lovell, who played in the field for St. Louis and who was one of the cleverest men with the stick; Wishard, who played third for Punahou; Makanaani, who caught flies in the outer garden for Kanehameha; Takuchi, who was the best player on Mills' losing team; Ahana, who played short in clever fashion for St. Louis; Inman, who captained Punahou's victorious team and who pitched in all the more important games; Harry Baldwin, who caught for Punahou; and the best schoolboy catcher in the city; and lastly, Bill Hitecock, one of the best all-around athletes in town, who caught, played second, and pitched for Fawcett.

HILA, June 16.—The Germania Club and its friends last Sunday celebrated the twenty-fifth year of Emperor William's reign by indulging in a picnic at the Azule place at Kauka. There was an abundance of refreshments, the piece de resistance being a keg of German beer, presented by Consul Rodies. An excellent day's fun was enjoyed, which was only slightly marred by an accident which occurred on the home journey.

M. Sternemann and Heinrich Hagens came home together in the Oeipio delivery auto, in the back of which were the remains of the feast, including a great bowl of salad. Some women came along and while the gallant Germans lifted their hats, neglecting the steering of the auto, the machine landed in the ditch. The shock threw backwards Hagens, who was deposited nearly in the salad bowl. The auto was slightly damaged, and the two occupants escaped with scratches.

Franklin Lee Whaley, indicted by the territorial grand jury for the killing of his wife, Maria Nawi Whaley, on Sunday evening, May 4, in the Mutual Telephone Building, entered a plea of not guilty in Judge Robinson's department of the circuit court yesterday morning.

"I believe the trial will be a lengthy one," said A. D. Larnach attorney for Whaley yesterday, "and on account of the statute which prohibits the trying of criminal cases by jury within the Territory during the months of July and August, I would ask the court to continue the case until the next term. I do not believe we could finish the case within the half month of June still remaining."

Judge Robinson set the date for trial for Tuesday morning, September 2, at eight thirty o'clock.

Laughing jackasses have lost their hold on the interest of William E. Miles, the mayor's secretary. Bare-eyed corollas, red rumps, rosellas and leadbeater cockatoos were the strange names of Australian birds which were discussed in Miles' private office last yesterday afternoon. It was thought for a while that Miles was seeing things. But investigation disclosed the fact that he was elbowed with Ellis Joseph, the bird man, who sold the mayor's secretary the laughing jackasses during his previous visit here.
